Our Teacher and Instructor: A. B. Simpson

Albert Benjamin Simpson (1843-1919) is known as one of the most respected Christian figures in American evangelicalism. Simpson founded a major evangelical denomination and pastored churches in Hamilton, Canada, Louisville, Kentucky and New York City. Simpson was a prolific writer from the start of his ministry, having authored many Christian classics and countless hymns, periodicals, articles, and curriculums over his lifetime. He wrote “Walking in the Spirit” in the late 1800’s which serves as the base text for this study. Simpson’s influence went on to move the hearts of missionaries, pastors, and people of all denominations towards spreading the gospel all over the world.

The Panel

Francois Fenelon

Francois de Salignac de la Mothe-Fenelon (1651-1715) was a French Roman Catholic archbishop, theologian poet and writer. Fenelon, as he became known, wrote the classic “Christian Counsel” near the end of the 17th century. “The Seeking Heart,” also quoted in this study was compiled from His works and letters and ring profoundly true in modern times.

A.W. Tozer

Aiden Wilson Tozer (1897-1963) served for over 40 years as a minister in the Christian and Missionary Alliance including 31 years at the Southside Alliance Church in Chicago. A proponent of Modern Fundamentalism, Tozer reached beyond any particular denomination focusing on prayer, worship and a deeper life in Christ. Tozer wrote three of the books referenced in this study including “The Crucified Life,” “The Pursuit of God,” and “The Knowledge of the Holy.”

John Wesley

Johnathan Wesley (1703-1791) was an Anglican clergyman, evangelist, and founder, with his brother Charles, of the Methodist movement in the Church of England. Wesley taught salvation through grace but also sanctification throughout the life of a Christian. Wesley’s classic “A Plain Account of Christian Perfection” is quoted frequently in the study along with quotes from numerous speeches and sermons in the 18th century.

Charles Stanley

Charles Frazier Stanley (1932-Present) pastored Baptist churches in North Carolina, Ohio and Florida before being named Senior Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Atlanta, GA. Stanley is a best-selling author and wrote “The Wonderful Spirit Filled Life” providing practical modern day advice to those seeking a deeper life. Stanley established In Touch Ministries in 1982. His broadcasts are translated into 100 languages.

<sup>15</sup> “If you love me, you will keep my commandments.
<sup>16</sup> And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, <sup>17</sup> even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him.
You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you.
<sup>18</sup> “I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you.
<sup>19</sup> Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me.
Because I live, you also will live.
<sup>20</sup> In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.
<sup>21</sup> Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me.
And he who loves me will be loved by my Father,
and I will love him and manifest myself to him.”
<sup>22</sup> Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, “Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world?” <sup>23</sup> Jesus answered him, “If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.
<sup>24</sup> Whoever does not love me does not keep my words.
And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me.”

John 14:15-24
